Milo & Cynthia Schield in Alive & Kickin's "The Sixties"

Cynthia & I performed in the Alive & Kickin (our sixth year) show: "The Sixties".

See <http://aliveandkickinmn.org/> 2016 excerpts: www.youtube.com/watch?v=h02c8JgRULc

Performed at the Bloomington Center for the Arts. Five-piece band; a 400 seat theater; seven shows; all completely sold out.

Great music; cool costumes! Singing and dancing for almost three hours a performance is a real workout but the audience response is unreal. The noise level can be deafening - but it makes performing satisfying and worthwhile. A great way to celebrate another good year!

A great feel-good show! An emotional roller-coaster!

Michael Mathew Ferrell (producer, director, script-writer and lead dancer) created a gem!

Jason Hanson (music director and pianist/accompanist) gave us some beautiful renditions.

Together, they chose some great songs and wove them into a wonderful story!

Cynthia sings "Feelin Grovy". Milo & Phil provide backup.
