

IASE PRIMARY INVITED SESSIONS:

IPS47 Applying results of statistics education research to teaching statistics.

Joan Garfield (USA), Hans Van Buuren (Netherlands) IASE

IPS48 Teaching Courses in Probability Modelling Alan Rossman (USA) IASE

IPS49 Should one attempt to integrate qualitative research approaches in traditional statistics courses? If yes, how? Irena Ograjensek (Slovenia) IASE

IPS50 Opportunities and pitfalls of e-learning, virtual learning environments and open education resources Rolf Biehler (Germany), Abbas Bazargan (Iran) IASE

IPS52 Teaching sampling techniques in agriculture, biology and social sciences
Carla Rossi (Italy), Flavia Mascioli (Italy) IASE

IPS53 Using popular books and entertainment in teaching statistics. Patrick Murphy (Ireland) IASE

IASE JOINT INVITED SESSIONS

IPS51 Enhancing statistics education through international cooperation and the use of international data (joint with IAOS) Reija Helenius (Finland) IASE IAOS

IPS17 Risk communication to a lay audience reflecting uncertainty and variability issues John Bailer baileraj@muohio.edu Christos Kitsos Helen MacGillivray GTC IASE

OTHER RELATED SESSIONS:

IPS24 Causal inference from observational studies Arvid Sjölander
arvid.sjolander@ki.se GTC

Source:

ISI-2011 Conference: www.isi2011.ie/site

ISI-2011 Invited Sessions:

www.isi2011.ie/site/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=33&Itemid=38